Big 4 Talks On Uniting Germany Up To Soviets

Proposal Places Reds On Spot; Unity Is Key German Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—Wesern proposals for a Big Four meeting on Germany put squarely up to Moscow today the next move in the developing diplomatic battle over German unification.

The proposal is regarded here as a hot one for the Reds to handle because reunification is something that no country which wants support in Germany can be against.

And yet the unification which the United States, Britain and France clearly seek is one which would associate a united Germany closely with the West and, if possible, bring it into the Western European defense lineup.

The Russians thus are being asked to accept a foreign ministers' meeting to consider rolling the Iron Curtain back at least to the borders of Poland. The Western Powers have reserved the right to restore certain Polish areas to a united Germany. If they should insist, the rollback would be even greater.

West Opposes New Boundary

Poland and East Germany agreed in January 1951 to a frontier line transferring more territory from Germany to Poland than provided for in the 1945 Potsdam agreement among the Big Four. The Western Allies have never accepted the new boundary line.

The proposals for a meeting "of limited duration . . . about the end of September at a place to be mutually agreed" were made to the Soviet yesterday in similar notes delivered to U. S. S. R. embassies in London, Paris and Washington.

Grows Out Of Big 3 Talks

This line of action by the Western nations grows out of decisions made here by Secretary of State Dulles, Britain's Lord Salisbury and Foreign Minister Georges Bidault of France to seek Big Four talks on Germany following the West German elections of Sept. 6.

These three subjects were proposed for discussion:

1. The organization of free elections in West Germany, which is controlled by the western Powers, in divided Berlin and Soviet East Germany.

2. Proposed creation of an all-German government "with freedom of action in internal and external affairs."

3. Final agreement on a treaty ending the occupation and restoring the independence of Austria.

The Wesern Powers told Russia steps proposed on Germany "must precede the opening of discussions with the Soviet government for a German peace treaty."

The last previous meeting of the Big Four foreign ministers, in May and June 1949, was concerned with agreements for ending the Soviet blockade of West Berlin.

LISBON — Officials of Hatcher Bros. Co., contractors for the Canton Bridge, announced the new span is expected to have the blacktop coat on in time for dedication ceremonies Saturday afternoon at 2.

The new $339,000 concrete and steel bridge will be dedicated by Gov. Frank J. Lausche in one of the opening day events for the village's Sesquicentennial.

The bridge is not expected to be open to traffic until about Sept. 1, the contractors announced.

The new span replaces the one erected in 1883, and condemned a couple of years ago by the state.

Work was started last fall.

East Germany Purges Minister Of Justice; Ukraine Shakeup Told

BERLIN (AP) — The Communists announced a shakeup in the Soviet Ukraine today in the mushrooming purge of security and justice officials in the U. S. S. R. and in restive East Germany.

In the third Communist shakeup in the last two days, Moscow radio announced the appointment of Timofiy A. Strokach as interior minister of the Ukranian Republic —second biggest of the 16 in the Soviet Union and long reported to be a hotbed of Nationalist resentment against Kremlin dictates.

Last night East Germany's puppet government announced it had purged Max Fechner, minister of justice, as "an enemy of the Republic." This os a charge punishable by death. In Fechner's place the Reds named "Red" Hilde Benjamin, a woman jurist with a reputation for dealing mercilessly with crimes against the Red regime.

Follows Beria Purge

The purge follows the booting of Lavrenty P. Beria, the former Soviet police boss, and apparently results from that act. The officials affected are those dealing with law enforcement or internal security — the task of keeping the people in line.

The ousting of Fechner a Socialist turned Communist seven years ago, came 12 hours after Moscow radio had announced the purging of one of Beria's top lieutenants in the Soviet Republic of Georgia. He was Minister of State Security Vladimir G. Dekanozov. The broadcast said he was expelled from the party. Presumably he also lost his government job.

The Soviet Ukraine has always been a headache for the men in the driver's seat in Moscow. It is a rich grain-producing area and vital to the Soviet economy. When Hitler's troops overran the Ukraine in the last war many Ukrainians reportedly welcomed them at first as deliverers from Communist tyranny.

The first blow in what appeared to be the beginning of the anticipated East German purge did not strike either of the two most hated Communists in the regime, Walter Ulbricht, deputy premier and party secretary general, and State Security Minister Wilhelm Zaisser.

Westerners have expected Ulbricht to go ever since the June 17 outbreak of rebellion. Policeman Zaisser's fall has been predicted since the disgrace of Beria, communism's top man in that line.

Instead, the first ax chopped down Fechner, 60, bald, heavy jowled, a former toolmaker, and a former Socialist who espoused communism in 1946. Of all the top Communist clique, refugees say he was the only one who ever showed human sympathy and understanding toward the victims of the system he enforced.

The 41-word communique announcing his ouster did not disclose details of the accusations against him.

His son and daughter-in-law also were seized.

Fechner's successor, 50-year-old Mrs. Benjamin, has been a fanatical Communist since 1928. The Nazis murdered her husband, a Jewish doctor, in a concentration camp. Though also a Jew, she and their son escaped their attentions.

She started practicing law after

Blonde Singer Is Found Slain

Man's Suicide Note Leads To Body

NEW YORK (AP)—The nude, bloodied body of a lovely blonde singer was found in her west side apartment today by police who went there after reading a man's suicide note.

The young woman, Florence Forsberg, vocalist in the chorus of the Broadway hit, "Wonderful Town," had been beaten about the head and stabbed and there were marks on her throat, police said.

The death note was written by Lester Johnsen, 25, who, police said, apparently killed himself with a rifle in his own bedroom about two miles away.

The note said:

"I killed Florence Forsberg." And it gave her address — 34 W. 69th St., just off Central Park.

Dr. Jerome de Crosse, of Roosevelt Hospital, said she appeared to have been dead three or four hours when police found her.

"Wonderful Town" stars Rosalind Russell. Showing at the Winter Garden, it is a musical version of the prize-winning hit play, "My Sister Eileen."

Police said Johnsen's mother and sister heard a shot from his bedroom at 7:15 o'clock this morning.

They found him face down on the floor, a rifle protruding from beneath his body.

Mrs. Johnsen said her son and Miss Forsberg had been friends.

Acting on the note, a squad of police went to Miss Forsberg's apartment.

Deputy Chief Inspector James B. Leggett said the young woman, about 25, had been stabbed in the chest and abdomen.

Several hours later police said they still had not found a weapon.

No motive for the slaying could be learned immediately.

Two Injured In June Auto Mishaps Here

Salem recorded 42 auto accidents in the month of June in which two persons were injured, according to the monthly police report issued today by Chief Nerr Gaunt.

Of the total number, 35 were two-car accidents, five were auto-fixed object mishaps, one involved an auto and a bicycle and the other was an auto-pedestrian mishap.

Police also investigated 12 petit larceny cases, three cases of grand larceny, two charges of breaking and entering, in which two 15-year-old Michigan youths were arrested, and one attempted robbery during last month.

Persons arrested numbered 24. Eight were arrested on a charge of intoxication, seven for reckless driving, two for breaking and entering, two on alien warrants, two for disorderly conduct, and one each on charges of resisting arrest, driving while intoxicated and no operator's permit.

Police issued 912 traffic tickets, of which 450 were in the county and 462 out. They answered 285 complaints and received 1,190 phone calls.

Reds Recess Truce Talks, Study New Plan

Break In Negotiations Reported Close; Clark Flies To Seoul

PANMUNJOM (AP)—The Communists called today for a recess until Saturday in the Korean armistice negotiations—presumably to consider a new Allied proposal—as speculation mounted that a break is near in the stalemated talks.

Authoritative quarters had predicted a showdown today. But the negotiators talked only for 24 minutes, and then recessed until 2 p. m. Saturday.

There was no official hint what went on during the brief meeting, which was delayed for 15 minutes while the U. N. Command delegation awaited a hurried message from its base camp at Munsan.

But observers outside the weathered conference hut noted that Allied interpreters held the floor most of the time to deliver three separate statements.

May Offer New Plan

Communist Correspondent Alan Winnington of the London Daily Worker said the Reds asked for the recess, suggesting that the Communists planned to relay a new U. N. proposal to headquarters for an answer.

Gen. Mark Clark, the U. N commander, flew to Seoul from Tokyo Thursday and accused the Reds of violating the secrecy which shrouds the armistice talks.

Clark told newsmen a Peiping radio report that Allied delegates staged a walkout at Wednesday's negotiating session "violated the executive nature of the truce sessions."

Radio Becomes Secretive

The Peiping radio turned secretive again tonight. The broadcast said only:

"At the Korean armistice negotiations in Panmunjom the delegations of both sides held an executive session today."

Clark talked for 50 minutes with South Korean President Syngman Rhee. There was no announcement of what was discussed but informed sources said the two talked of the truce talks at Panmunjom and the massive Communist attack on the East-Central Front.

Clark also conferred with Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, 8th Army comander, on the military situation.

Clark's sudden arrival heightened speculation that a crisis of some sort was impending at Panmunjom.

Efforts to wrap up the final details of a truce apparently have been stalled by Communist demands for ironclad guarantees that South Korea would honor a truce and for the recapture of 27,000 anti-Communist Korean prisoners freed on orders of President Rhee last month.

The resignation of L. Y. Cottrell as Beloit School principal was accepted at the meeting of the school board recently.

WHEAT HARVEST UNDER WAY. Farmers throughout the Columbiana and Mahoning County district are in the midst of what appears to be a bumper wheat harvest. The current harvest of the golden grain is as good or above last year's yield and also above the average of 26.5 bushels per acre. Millers report the quality (weight per bushel) above average this summer. The photos above show shocked wheat after cutting on the Denny farm on Carey Rd., near Valley, and at bottom Lester Stroup and Richard Denny load wheat onto wagon.

Congress OKs Excess Profits Tax Extension

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration could count its biggest legislative triumph of the congressional session so far today in passage of the bill extending the excess profits tax six months.

Senate approval by voice vote late yesterday sent the embattled measure to the President's desk for signature into law.

Senate leaders succeeded in beating down any amendment which would have sent the bill back to the House, where it was involved in a long bitter row that split Republican ranks.

The extension, from last June 30 to Dec. 31, is estimated to bring in about 800 millions of additional revenue. But the administratoin had to give a flat commitment, announced on the Senate floor, not to seek another extension.

The only amendment offered in the Senate was beaten 52-34. It would have exempted from the tax any business with net income of less than $100,000 a year. The present limit is $25,000.

4 In Family Hurt In Road Mishap

Salem Area Mother, Daughter Hospitalized

A family of four was injured, two of them hospitalized, in an auto-truck mishap at 4:50 p.m. Wednesday on Route 165, just west of its junction with Route 62, the State Highway Patrol reported today.

In Salem City Hospital in fair condition today are Mrs. Albert Hiner, 38, of RD 5, Salem and her daughter, Virginia, 12.

Mrs. Hiner sustained a brain concussion and a fracture of the left shoulder. Virginia also received a brain concussion. Two other children in the car, Richard, 16, and Marjorie, 8, sustained minor abrasions and scratches. Both were treated at the hospital and released.

Patrolmen said Richard Hiner was driving the car west when a dump truck operated by Joseph Gabrielcik, Jr., 17, of Rosemont, O. turned out of a county road into the path of the Hiner car.

The crash damaged the car considerably but did little damage to the truck, they said.

The 17-year-old driver of the dump truck is being held for juvenile authorities, patrolmen reported.

Cent Increase Made In Milk Prices Here

A one-cent increase in milk prices was announced today by Salem dairies.

The cent climb puts the price of regular milk at 22 cents a quart and homogenized at 22. The price per quart had been reduced June 1 due to a milk surplus.

The increase now is the result of an increase in the amount paid to farmers for Class 1 milk, the dairies explained.

Velde Supports Matthews Talk On Clergy Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Velde (R—Ill) told newsmen today he believes J. B. Matthews should be given an opportunity to tell the House Un—American Activities Committee what he knows about his charges of Communist infiltration of the clergy.

But Velde added that a decision on Matthews request to testify will be left to the committee at a closed meeting Monday.

Velde, chairman of the committee, said, however, that he is "not going to allow it to get into a Protestant-Catholic or religious fight. He said the committee would be interested "only in the facts.

Matthews, who resigned under fire last week as executive staff director of the Senate investigating subcommitte headed by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis), said in his letter to the House group yesterday that his request was suggested by "hundreds of citizens from all parts of the United States. He said these citizens want him to "present exhaustive documentation on the Communist infiltration of the clergy.

"I will welcome such an opportunity if my appearance is agreeable to your members, Matthews added.

Velde said he had read Matthews magazine article which touched off a storm of criticism and led to the resignation of all three Democratic members from McCarthys investigations subcommittee. Velde declined comment on the article.

10,000 Chinese Hurl New Drive At Allied Lines

45,000 S. Koreans, Backed By U.S. Planes, Push Counterattack

SEOUL (AP) — The Chinese Reds today hurled a fierce 10,000-man attack at Kumhwa—keystone of the Allied line in Central Korea—after yielding up to a mile to counterattacking South Koreans a few miles to the east.

Maj. John Eisenhower, the President's son, who is a staff officer at the front, predicted the renewed Chinese attacks "can be taken care of all right." He said the East-Central Front was becoming stabilized and the attack "is not as serious as was first thought, although "you can's tell what might happen."

About 15 miles to the northeast, South Korean troops backed by thunderous U. S. air, artillery and tank support recaptured up to a mile of ground lost to the greatest Red offensive in two years this week—an offensive which American staff officers said the Chinese launched while using uniformed Russian officers as military advisers.

"All hell has broken loose, but we are holding there," said an American adviser to ROK troops defending the vital junction of Kumhwa, where five major roads meet.

"The chinks want Kumhwa and they're trying hard to get it," said Maj. Joseph L. Harvath, Box 98, Piketon, Ohio, an operations adviser. He said some South Koreans were pulled back from outposts on orders as the Reds hit.

The new battle for the vital communications center was about 15 miles southwest of the Kumsong River front, where three South Korean divisions—about 45,000 soldiers—backed by American tanks and artillery—drove the Chinese back as much as a mile Thursday. No U. S. infantrymen took part in the attack, Army spokesmen said.

The South Koreans struck under an umbrella of hundreds of U. S. Air Force, Navy, and Marine and Australian jet warplanes which softened up the Reds in the first day of good flying weather since the big Red assault opened.

Associated Press Correspondent Forrest Edwards reported the Chinese falling back disorganized from territory they gained Monday and Tuesday in a massive offensive which carried an officially-disclosed four miles.

U. S. tanks and big guns hammered the Communists and waves of Allied warplanes flew more than 1,000 strikes. They shot down three Red MIG jets in aerial battles and damaged two others, shot up three Red planes on the ground and destroyed three Red tanks, the Air Force said.

Dems Invited Back To Probe

McCarthy Asks Solons Back To Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) sent a "let's-bury-the-hatchet" letter today to the three Democrats who angrily resigned last week from the Senate investigations subcommittee he heads.

"The door is open for your return," the letter said.

Saying he was writing with the approval of the three other Republican members, McCarthy declared:

"I want to assure you that if you have changes to suggest in our methods of operation, we shall be happy to sit down around the committee table to discuss your viewpoints with you and to consider your suggestions and recommendations.'

Senators McClellan (D-Ark), Symington (D-Mo) and Henry Jackson (D-Wash) quit the subcommittee after the four Republican members voted to give McCarthy sole power to hire and fire staff employes.

In revolt against what they called one-man rule, the Democrats said they could not accept the responsibility without any authority.

McCarthy's letter, however, minimized the authority conferred on him. He wrote the Democrats:

"I sincerely hope you will not permit such differences of opinion among us on details of our housekeeping to cause you not to continue the service which you have been rendering the country . . ."

The walkout over vesting McCarthy with complete control over subcommitee staff personnel came hard on the heels of a controversy over a magazine article written by J. B. Matthews.

Matthews, hired by McCarthy as the subcommittee's executive staff director, wrote in the article that the largest single group supporting the Communist apparatus in America is composed of Protestant clergymen.

The trio of Democrats denounced this as a shocking and unwarranted attack on the Protestant clergy. Matthews submitted his resignation, but McCarthy accepted it only after President Eisenhower joined in criticism of the article.

Matthews yesterday asked the House Un-American Activities Committee to hear his contentions of Red subversion in the clergy. Commite Chairman Velde (R-Ill) told newsmen his "purely personal" opinion was that Matthews' request should be granted. But he said it was up to the full committee.

McCarthy's earlier suggestion that the investigations subcommittee question Matthews was rejected as outside that group's jurisdiction.

In his letter today, McCarthy said he was "totally unaware of the controversial article written by Dr. Matthews at the time he was engaged."

Nepal Rushes Troops To Quell Red Revolt

NEW DELHI, India (AP)— The Nepalese government was reported rushing new reinforcements to western Nepal today to quell continuing Communist disorders in the isolated Himalayan region.

Reports reaching here said the Indian government had permitted the Nepalese reinforcements to cross Indian Territory to reach the mountain-locked trouble spot.

Indian newspapers said last week that Communists had attacked the important Nepalese trading town of Bilauri, 200 miles east of here, killing a policeman and looting a police armory. The Reds were said to be marching toward Dhangarhi, near the Indian border.

Philippine Army Kills, Captures 104 Huks

MANILA (AP) — Philippine Army headquarters reported today it killed and captured 104 Communist-led Huk dissidents in a two-week military operation which ended yesterday.

A total of 65 firearms and 1,366 rounds of ammunition were seized, the report said.

Army losses were listed as 5 men killed and 8 wounded.

Alleged Burglar Seeks To Avoid Trial

BALTIMORE (AP)—The $5,000 bail for Harry H. Channell, accused of burglarizing the homes of Hollywood notables, was continued yesterday until the Supreme Court rules on his petition for a review of an extradition order.

The 60-year-old Baltimorean denies that he was in California when the homes of Mrs. Nancy Sinatra, former wife of the singer, and Mrs. Sascha Newman, wife of a 20th Century-Fox vice president, were robbed of some $50,000 in jewels and clothing.

The extradition order would send him back to California for trial.

Jailed Man Advertises For Person To Pay Fine

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—A self-styled artist, expert automobile driver and golfer is advertising for someone to pay his fine and get him out of jail.

He is serving out a $126 fine assessed for concealing a knife and resisting arrest. At $5 a day, he has 15 more days to serve.

Police Told To Keep Ticket Lectures Short

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Keep the lectures short—five minutes is enough time to give a traffic ticket, the Los Angeles police commission has told officers.

Ohio Wheat Harvest Aided By Weather

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Cool, dry weather last week helped Ohio farmers make good progress harvesting wheat, the weather bureau reported today.

By July 10, the bureau said, 50 to 75 per cent of a bumper wheat crop had been reaped, except in the northeastern counties where harvesting has just begun. In the extreme south, it is nearly finished.

Quality as well as quantity of this whopping crop has been excellent. There has been little moisture content.

The bureau said oats haven't done as well. Harvesting, begun recently, is proving "only fair."

Sweet corn is appearing on the markets in the extreme southern counties and is tasseling well and shooting ears in the north.

Western and southern farmers are retailing field grown tomatoes and sugar beets, soybeans and tobacco are growing well.

An 18-year-old telephone operator, Martha Jackson, said she could hear a lot of "loud banging and hammering" at the bank. She notified police.

But apparently the burglars had heard Miss Jackson say "Number please," and escaped in their car with 18 safety deposit boxes, containing only $1,435. A nearby vault had $20,000.

Columbus Transit Co. Bus Drivers Strike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Bus drivers today struck the Columbus Transit Co., leaving this capital city of 375,000 without its main means of public transportation.

The CIO workers walked off their jobs when the city government and the company failed to agree on a new fare increase. The city voted the company a 1-cent increase to 11 cents but the company held out for a cost-of-service franchise.

The drivers were making an average of $1.75 an hour. But 10½ cents of this was recently granted on the condition the city would approve the company's fare plan by today.

More menhaden are caught annually in the United States than any other fish. They are used principally for fertilizer and as a source of oil needed by the leather, steel and linoleum industries.

National Rubber Remodels Plant

Expansion To Relieve Crowded Conditions

COLUMBIANA — National Rubber Machinery Co. is repairing and remodeling the former vanadium plant, which it purchased from the Electro-Metallurgical Co. late last year to utilize its 116,424 square feet of floor space in relieving crowded conditions in the machine shop division, and affording additional and more conveneint pattern storage space.

The former vanadium plant adjoins the original National Rubber plant on the west and includes about an acre of ground along with the buildings.

One of the principal changes contemplated will be the removal of the pattern department from the building at Railroad and West Sts. to the remodeled vanadium plant, which will make available 25,000 more square feet for the machine shop division.

Manager Paul Ross of the machine shop division has not completed plans for occupancy of the additional space.

Manager Roy Bilger of the foundry division is having a large pattern storage space fitted up in the former vanadium plant just across the drive from the foundry of National Rubber, with entrances facing each other, which will greatly facilitate the handling of patterns for the foundry.

Other pattern storage facilities in the National Rubber plant and in the former Ohio Edison building on Railroad St. will still be maintained, however.

The new pattern shop in the former vanadium plant will be a large well-lighted room at the west side, with plenty of daylight. Mr. Bilger has had a new blacktop floor put in.

Repairs and remodeling are necessarily extenive in some parts of the former vanadium plant, and officials are unable to say yet how soon the changes may be made.

FIRESTONE AMERICAN Legion Post began Monday evening to shape plans for the 68th annual Columbiana street fair to be held Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 10, 11 and 12, sponsored by Firestone Post for the last 34 years.

Harry Lundgren, who has been manager of the fair for a number of years, will serve in that capacity again this year, and Post Adjutant Thomas Crawford will be in charge of the membership tent, the drive for new members and renewals to begin simultaneously with the fair.

The quota of members will be about 250, based on the average membership the laat four years. Firestone Post has received a unit citation every year during that period for reaching its quota in good season.

The Chamber of Commerce will again sponsor the merchants and manufacturers' exhibit tent, a feature of the fair the last several years.

The Nolan Amusement Co. of Zanesville has the amusement concession this year, having been recommended by the Gooding Co., which has had the concession several years, but was unable to include in its schedule this year the Lisbon, Columbiana and Canfield fairs.

Early Diagnosis of Polio Is Important

The most important step in the treatment of poliomyelitis is to make the diagnosis as early as possible. This is not always easy because the disease probably begins several days before there are any signs of paralysis.

Dr. Jordan

The symptoms during this early stage are often like those of any mild infection. Also, it must be emphasized that a good many people have the early symptoms but never get any paralysis at all.

As soon as a definite case has been discovered the other members of the family should be examined.

When the diagnosis of polio has been made the patient usually should be treated in the hospital, because the best results are obtained when the medical care, nursing, physical therapy and other treatments are readily available, as they are in most hospitals.

The patient with polio who develops trouble with breathing requires special treatment with a respirator or iron lung. This is a serious complication, of course, but many recover completely, often without any paralysis at all.

No two victims of polio are exactly alike. Experience, judgment and skill are required to get the best results from treatment. The physician, of course, should be in general charge of the measures which are undertaken.

Rest, relaxation and muscular training later are important. Proper nursing care is invaluable, as are measures to combat the muscle spasm which accompanies the early stages of poliomyelitis.

Hot, wet packs help to relieve the pain and skin tenderness which often accompany the disease.

When poliomyelitis strikes it is important first that the patient be put to bed as soon as possible. A person who has an acute illness, especially at a time when poliomyelitis is around, should be placed in bed at once, regardless of how trivial the illness may appear to be.

An attack of indigestion, a head cold, fever or headache may mean that the disease is developing. Those who have tried to continue normal activity after the appearance of such warning signs run the risk of developing the disease in a more serious form.

The treatment of early poliomyelitis has greatly improved and will doubtless continue to do so. To get the best results, early symptoms should not be ignored and attention should be obtained right away if suspicious signs develop.

Tightening The Screws

There could have been no meaner trick to play on the jittery Kremlin than the western invitation to attend a four - power autumn conference on German and Austrian peace.

The Kremlin cannot accept the invitation under present circumstances without being suspected of further appeasement — and its last gestures of appeasement ended in disastrous riots.

It cannot refuse the invitation without being suspected of getting ready to crack down on all the satellite citizens who have gone dangerously out of their way in recent weeks to show their dislike and contempt for Soviet domination. That could be even worse than appeasement.

There are two likely starting points for popular revolt — a condition of hopefulness among captive people and a condition of hopelessness. When they have something to gain or nothing to lose they are susceptible to the invitation to make trouble for their captors.

Contrary to the popular idea, non - Russian diplomats are not all bumbling fools who play squarely into the hands of the super - slicksters of the Communist conspiracy. The idea of a four-power conference on German and Austrian peace settlements couldn't have been revived at a more inopportune time for the Kremlin.

On The Right Track

The new chairman of the National Labor Relations Board, Guy Farmer has explained how he felt about his responsibility.

"I undertake this job not as a partisan of management or of labor," he said. "I come with a deep resolve to do my very best to promote harmonious relationship and further understanding among all groups, by giving the statute which I shall help to administer an honest and impartial interpretation and an even - handed application at all times and to all people."

Farmer is the Eisenhower administration's first NLRB appointee. His attitude reveals one momentous thing that has happened in Washington this year without fanfare — the restoration of the objective approach to public problems.

Severe damage was done to unionism under two previous administrations by the skull-busting tactics of appointed officials who abused a public trust with brazen partisanship.

Their zealotry embittered its victims and generated friction which was to do severe damage to employe-employer relations. NLRB Chairman Farmer will be trying to undo some of that damage while he is trying to promote understanding.

Season For Beauty

Once more the season for beauty is upon us.

It would not have seemed possible in any preceding year, but the 1953 beauty queens are more beautiful than ever.

If this goes on much longer, there will have to be a closed season for beauty. Queens of the cult will have to be chosen in secrecy and thereafter viewed darkly, as if through a mirror, lest they turn men to jelly in the fashion of Medusa, who turned them to stone.

Just why it is that American women continue to get more beautiful year by year has never been studied. There has been no poll on it, no door-to-door questioning, no measurements by learned professors, not even a panel discussion on TV or a presidential commission.

The phenomenon is taken for granted, as if it were no more important than the fact boys' feet keep getting larger while the boys keep getting taller. There will be one day a whole countryful of breathtakingly beautiful American women matched up with seven-foot behemoths standing on Size 14 feet — and an ordinary American won't be comfortable in public any more.

New York Bites The Bullet

Of all the cities which must have mass transportation or die, New York is first and foremost because of its state of chronic traffic congestion.

It will be regarded by transportation authorities as a precedent that the city which needs mass transportation most has jumped its base rate of fares 200 per cent for subway service in the last five years.

The hard decision to do this was made outside the realm of local politics by business-minded people. Every politician in New York City will be tempted to make votes with it. But for the first time since inflation began, the city's public - owned transportation system will have a margin of operating revenue. Its capital costs, past and future, will continue to be met out of local taxes.

For many years, a 5 - cent fare covered operating costs. On July 1, 1948, it took a 10-cent fare to cover them. On July 25, 1953, the fare will go to 15 cents — about as accurate a measurement of what inflation, shortened work weeks and bargaining power have done to transportation as transportation authorities could find anywhere in the United States.

Senate Minority's 'Sitdown' Can Cut Both Ways

Far more important than whether a congressional committee staff investigator who is bitterly anti-Communist shall be summarily fired without a hearing, while the rights of anybody in the government accused of being a security risk are well protected by an elaborate system of review boards with hearings, is another issue now developing in the Senate.

It is whether a minority group of a committee shall be able to resign and a minority party, by refusing to appoint members in their places, shall effectively block the majority operation of congressional committees.

"Sit - down strike" against the majority by the minority in committees is something unprecedented in the history of Congress, and it could be destructive.

If, for example, the majority party was confident it could uncover corruption in the executive branch of the government, it could be prevented from making such exposure by the simple refusal of minority members to serve on a congressional committee.

The issue has arisen in connection with the action of three Democrats on the subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Government Operations — Senators McClellan, Symington, Jackson — who first voted to remove J. B. Matthews, former Methodist clergyman and staff investigator.

When the latter quit anyhow, the three Democratic senators then voted against letting the chairman of the committee, Sen. McCarthy, choose the members of the operating staff.

The Republican majority upheld the right of the chairman to select his aides.

Each committee can make its own decisions as to personnel of the staff, and, if it chooses by majority vote to delegate that authority to the chairman or to revoke it at any time, it can do so.

To resign because a majority decides an issue of procedure differently from the viewpoint of the minority is to abandon the proper means of recourse — namely, an appeal to the full committee and, if necessary, to the Senate itself.

The Republicans as a minority party in previous sessions of Congress felt aggrieved at times when counsel not to their liking was chosen by the majority, as, for instance, in the case of the Tydings committee.

The Republicans took their medicine and didn't walk out. In fact, the Senate itself later on appointed Sen. McCarran, a Democrat, to conduct a second investigation on the subject.

Another issue which grows out of the same controversy was raised by Sen. Monroney on the floor of the Senate when he uttered a broadside attack against committee investigations on the subject of internal security.

His thesis was that the Federal Bureau of Investigation and its director, J. Edgar Hoover, could be relied on to take care of this problem without congressional inquiries.

In this, Sen. Monroney is repeating the familiar line of the Democrats in the last presidential campaign, as taken by Adlai Stevenson —namely, that the entire job could be safely left to the FBI alone.

What Mr. Monroney overlooks is that Alger Hiss was caught, not by the FBI, but by testimony during a House committee hearing, and that the Teapot Dome Scandal was uncovered by a Senate investigating committee headed by Sen. Tom Walsh of Montana, Democrat.

As for the FBI's attitude toward congressional inquiries, the best testimony comes from J. Edgar Hoover himself in a copyrighted interview in "U.S. News a World Report," published on August 11, 1950. In it the following exchange occurred:

"Q — Do you believe that public exposures through congressional committees, when properly safeguarded to avoid implication of innocent parties, could be helpful in drawing public attention to instances and episodes involving espionage, and other Communist activity?

"Mr. Hoover — With the laws of libel and slander militantly used by subversives, exposures under oath, with safeguards to protect the innocent, are necessary.

"A private citizen od even a great metropolitan daily paper does not have the facilities to make the investigations. Hence, many exposures can be made only through an official investigating committee possessing the power of subpoena with persuasive facilities such as laws covering perjury and the power to cite for contempt.'

It would be unfortunate if the Democrats attempted to make a partisan issue out of their refusal to serve on the subcommittee of the Senate Government Operations Committee.

Partisanship works both ways—and some Republicans could soon be claiming that the real reason that the Democrats have been balking is that they are afraid of what may be uncovered in the future concerning some hitherto undisclosed activities of Communist sympathizers inside the Truman administration.

Dropping In For Dinner

By TRUMAN TWILL

There are at least 10 things I'd like to know more about, if someone would dig up the dope:

Such as what really happened to a politician named Biaka Boda who was visiting his cannibalistic constituents on the Ivory Coast in Africa and never came back. Subsequently, searchers found his clothing near a pile of bones which could have been his. Did he drop in for dinner?

Such as what happened to John N. Garner, who once lived within a heartbeat of the White House as a U.S. vice president, then went back to a hick town in Texas and never was heard of again. Was he disillusioned, or did someone have him for dinner, too?

Such as what became of the doctrine that the secret of American success was an ever - rising standard of living made possible by an ever - lower cost of production, which in turn was made possible by ever-increasing efficiency. Is there anything to the impression that the only ever - expanding thing left in the U.S.A. is the dollar wage per hour and that the standard of living is falling?

Such as what befell an idea given wide support just after the 18th amendment was repealed, that the way to steer clear of that sucker trap a second time was for the liquor industry to practice moderation in all things, including promotion of a product a darned sight more dangerous than fireworks. Did the whole thing fall into the hands of people who never learn anything?

Such as whatever finally happened to that once - etheral beauty of the silver screen, Ann Harding, who moved with stately grace and charm through many a memorable movie. It cannot be, can it, that Ann Harding, too, acquired maturity and responsibilities?

Such as who puts up the big money for big pressures exerted in this land of the free and home of the gullible — and no one lan be naieve enough, can they, to believe that it doesn't take a heap o' cash to make yourself noticed?

Such as the relative rareness of red raspberries in this Eden of Gracious living, because nothing that happens in July is more memorable than this annual benefaction of crimson nectar.

Such as what becomes of political campaign buttons when the campaigns are over. These ugly little mementoes are turned out by the millions, yet within a few months after the end of each campaign are hard to find and have become keepsakes within 12 years.

Such as what is going to be the fate of millions of old radios being shoved to the fall by new television sets. Are all of them going to end up eventually as surplus furniture, or will someone discover something that can be done with old radios?

Such as what people used to worry about before they began to worry about the Reds. Or was there a time when people didn't worry?

The Center Of Power

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

It is often difficult for a people who live under a constitution providing for stated elections and an orderly change of officials to understand another form of government in which power is achieved by murder. Yet, every change of government in Russia, since the fall of Kerensky in 1917, was marked by a struggle among powerful and ambitious men who employed murder as a weapon to achieve their ends.

Sokolsky

Since Lenin took over in 1917, there have only been two actual changes in the control of the state and neither of them orderly.

Lavrenti Beria was undoubtedly one of the most powerful men in Russia under Stalin, being the head of the NKVD, the secret police, whose function it is to guard the state, put down its enemies, anticipate revolution and control the Communist parties throughout the world, including American.

IN EVERY embassy, consulate, Russian trading mission and national Communist party anywhere on earth, at least one or more representatives of the NKVD is situated.

Whether he is the ambassador or a chauffeur, he is named the front man. Many were appointed by Beria and were loyal to him personally.

For instance, we speak of Vishinsky of Gromyko or Malik at the United Nations, but behind them, perhaps in a very obscure position, is an NKVD man whose habit it has been to report to Beria.

No matter what a Politburo member may want or do, the NKVD and its predecessors the GPU or the CHEKA watched to make sure that there was no betrayal of the state.

Beria's predecessors, Yagoda and Yezhov were purged. Yagoda was an interesting character because his operations occurred during the period of Stalin's emergence to power.

YAGODA WAS undoubtedly a supporter of Stalin against Trotsky; yet there is evidence that his sympathies were with the right-wing Bolsheviks.

Yagoda helped Stalin destroy most of the old Bolsheviks. In the end, Stalin purged Yagoda and had him killed.

It took Stalin about 12 years to consolidate his power against the old Bolsheviks and finally, he had to resort to murder. The present struggle for power moves at a swifter pace.

Had the United States had an adequate intelligence service and a competent psychological warfare agency, advantage could have been taken of Beria's efforts to stimulate a popular revolt against the Kremlin.

Instead, the United States sat on its hands and thus strengthened the position of Malenkov.

In this country are a large number of Beria's agents. How large a number, how they are distributed, where they are placed, I do not know, but I should imagine that the FBI does know.

THE FBI is the only agency of our government that is adequately staffed for counter - intelligence of this nature.

Beria's men throughout the world are now living in terror because they know, from past experience, that some of them will be purged; that others will be assassinated as Gen. Krivitsky was assassinated in Washington hotel.

They know that some of the most active anti-Communists, who have been disclosing data to the FBI and to congressional committees, were Yagoda's men who, when their boss was purged, took refuge in this country, and provided information.

THIS IS likely to happen again. Malenkov and Beria were equals; one controlled the party, the other the largest and most effective police power in the world.

The party triumphed over the police in the first show of power.

Beria's men will now be hunted everywhere. Whoever was close to him will be accused of conspiring with him to bring about a counter-revolution in east Germany, Czechoslovakia and Poland.

Some in the United States will seek asylum, which they can get if they contact the FBI. Their day is done and they know it.

Stalin's purges were designed to produce a dictatorship and always preceded some warlike step. Will Malenkov follow that design, too?

He will still have to struggle against Molotov and Bulganin. Molotov has the reputation of not being too smart; yet he has managed to outlive all the old Bolsheviks but one, Kaganovitch.

Will Molotov be killed by Malenkov or will he do the killing before the Russians try to "unify" Germany?

Ex-Generals Make Good

By MARTIN S. HAYDEN

The announcement by Gen. Omar N. Bradley that he will enter private business on August 16 marks the passing from active command of the last of the five-star generals and admirals.

It also revives interest in the postwar civilian successes achieved by the men whose names made history in World War II.

As one of the nine men to whom Congress gave permanent rank, Bradley will not cease to be a soldier when he takes over as board chairman of the Bulova Research and Development Laboratories, Inc.

He will remain available for recall to command and draw for life $19,541 in military pay and allowances.

Still with him on the five-star list remain six others: Gen. Douglas MacArthur, who is in New York Admirals Ernest J. King and William D. Leahy, who live quietly in Washington; Adm. William F. (Bull) Halsey; Gen. George C. Marshall, who is retired in Leesburg, Va., and Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, who is in Berkeley, Calif.

Gen. Eisenhower resigned when nominated for President and Gen. Henry H. (Hap) Arnold is dead.

Eight of the original nine forged new and profitable careers after their retirement.

Adm. Halsey is now president of the International Standard Electric Co. and a director of several corporations.

Gen. MacArthur supplements his army pay with $100,000 a year as board chairman of Remington Rand, Inc.

Marshall received $22,500 a year extra income as president of the American Red Cross, then waived his Army pay to serve as secretary of state and secretary of defense.

Arnold, Leahy, King and Bradley all wrote best-selling war memoirs, though none approached the financial success of Gen. Eisenhower, who sold his "Crusade in Europe" for $476,250 after taxes.

Only Nimitz has received no major outside income. He spends his retired time as a regent of the University of California.

Other officers of wartime import also have succeeded in new fields.

Gen. Lucius B. Clay, ex-commander of occupied Germany, is now board chairman of Continental Can and a General Motors Corp. director. Rivaling him in industrial rank is Adm. Ben Moreell, former Navy materiel chief and now board chairman of Jones & Laughlin Steel.

Lieut. Gen. Leslie R. Groves of atomic fame is now a Remington-Rand vice president.

Lieut. Gen. James H. Doolittle, leader of the first Tokyo air raid, is now a Shell Oil executive, while a fellow airman, Lieut. Gen. Ira C. Eaker, is with the Hughes Tool Co. in Houston.

Air Force Lieut. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton is an official of National Distillers; by contrast, Lieut. Gen. John C. H. Lee, supply genius in Eisenhower's SHAEF command, has turned to religion as a leader of the Episcopal Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

Another airman, Gen. Carl Spaatz, is an editor of Newsweek Magazine, while Gen. Brehon B. Somervell, former army supply chief, is president of the Koppers Co.

Others are Gen. Jonathan M. Wainwright, board chairman of the Hom-Ond Food stores; Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, president of Consolidated Vultee Corp.; Gen. Jacob L. Devers, assistant president of the Fairchild Engine and Aviation Corp.; Lieut. Gen. Ennis C. Whitehead, an executive of Northrup Aircraft, and Gen. George C. Kenney, president of the nonprofit Arthritis & Rheumatism Foundation.

Also in the industrial world is the sailor who got the blame for the Pearl Harbor disaster, Adm. Husband E. Kimmel, now an executive of the Electric Boat Co., in New London, Conn.; his companion in official blame, Lieut. Gen. Walter Short, is dead.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

'TV Drunkards'

We are organizing an association to be known as "TV Watchers Anonymous." The idea is to help cure video addicts of the habit, which can become pretty frightful. No drugs, no cures, no massages, no publicity! Just a group effort to bring about the will power necessary to swear off TV or take it in modertion.

It is saddening to note the great numbers of men and women who have become TV "drunkards," so to speak.

They began by taking a little video . . . just an occasional program . . . but couldn't let it alone . . . and before they knew it they were "TV-holics."

These "tee-vee-holics" are interesting studies. They can't take video or let it alone. It may take some time before they become helpless, and a lot dpends on the programs they go for.

Ultimately they develop a terrible appetite for the stuff, and there are few more pathetic sights than a TV addict, sitting in front of his video set, knowing no good can come from it and yet powerless to say, "I've had enough."

We have known strong men to take a little TV now and then, but we have seen nearly all of them wind up pitiful victims, dazed and groggy, their eyes flashing the message, "I know this is awful, but I can't give it up."

Now and then a person can join the TV audience and escape with character undamaged, but this is only in cases where he or she has had the good fortune to tune into a pretty terrible comedian and decided immediately to be a teetotaler.

The usual thing is for one to get a pretty fair program which whips up a taste for something better. The most hopeless types of TV-holics are:

(a) — The man or woman who becomes addicted to jackpot programs. "I can take one or two of these without damage," a victim says, but he soon finds himself staggering from one quiz program into another, his resistance gone.

Such a victim can wind up joining the studio audience in the hope of winning $5,000, an airplane trip to Sun Valley, a seven - room house and nine iceboxes complete with veal chops, yet realizing deep down inside that when the man asks, "Now, for the jackpot! Is sassafras a river, a tropical fever, an Asiatic potentate, an herb or a gondola?" he will answer, "Mt. Everest."

(b) — The "panelholic." He begins with one or two panels a week, begins taking a dozen an evening (through the lack of anything else) and, just as a drinker winds up seeing snakes, he winds up seeing kilgallens, robin chandlers, peter donalds, faye emersons, and dozens of jinx falkenburghs.

(c) — The forum slave. This bird likes to see prominent personages suffer. He is always craving "just one more larry spivak and then I'll go home." He feels extra desolate because everybody else in the family walks out when he enters the TV room.

They know he is going to get stiff on "Is the national debt reaching dangerous levels?" "How far should we go with Tito?" "What should be our attitude toward the Suez canal?" and things as strong and overpowering as that. Oh, well, there are many other types. They're all pretty heartbreaking. "TV Watchers Anonymous" may offer a way out.

Truman says the Democrats lost the last election because of Republican demagoguery. Anything for a laugh, eh Harry?

When "Fisherman" won that race the other day we assume Jockey Bates was up.

The much discussed movie version of "The Mcon Is Blue" lacks the charm of the stage version.

Dr. John F. Brdmann, now 89, and a surgeon for 66 years, perfcrming over 20,000 operations, had a hospital operating room dedicated to him the other day.

Gloria Swanson put the TV audience in a nostalgic mood with those flashes of her early movies on the Godfrey program.

The Democratic Digest, a paper put out by the Democratic party, has published its first number and the Republicans say it is the first time in publication history that articles have constituted "the funnies."

Oklahoma City's Water Supply Runs Dry As Drought Goes On

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Three-fourths of the earth's surface is water. You'd think there would be enough to go around.

But Oklahoma City, locked in the throes of a drought-bred water shortage with no solution in sight, has become a "worried, puzzled" community.

Its population of about 250,000, the 45th largest city in the nation, has cut its water usage about one-third—but that's not enough. Even wtih the reduction, the supply on hand in the city's two lakes is not expected to last past mid-November. Normal rainfall isn't expected to bolster the supply appreciably.

The water shortage hurts!

The still - to - be - developed Southwest is looking for new industries. A plentiful water supply is a big lure. But here, the cloudless skies have snapped the bait off the hook.

In some Southwestern cities, where supplies have run dry, water is being trucked in.

William Morgan Cain, president of the city Chamber of Commerce, said dryly:

"Industries that would ordinarily be interested in Oklahoma City have just stopped and are waiting to see how his thing turns out. A lot of them, with the situation as it is, don't even look.

"Generally, it has been bad for business in the city. People get worried and puzzled."

Taxes, too, take a beating. Mayor Allen Street pointed out normally the city collects $1,700,000 annually in water taxes. With consumption curtailed "about 20 per cent of that is lost."

Tulsa, in the northeast part of the state, is a virtual oasis. Big government dams have assured it of all the water it can use now and in he foreseeable future.

Oklahoma city fathers, who constructed a new lake a little over a decade ago thinking it would answer the city's water problem for a century, aren't waiting for Mother Nature's help.

A two million dollar bond issue has been passed to dig emergency wells.

Professional cloud seeders have been consulted and Mayor Street says they probably will be employed to produce rain along the lake's narrow watershed.

Goblet—Fall Shape

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Fashion Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Ladies should look like goblets next fall, says Christian Dior, clothes designer of Paris and New York.

Dior terms it the "chalice look," thus confusing the copyists who have just climbed on the bandwagon promoting their versions of his "tulip look" of last spring.

The "chalice" differs from the "tulip" in that it employs no padding or stiffening to achieve the rounded line from collarbone to bust, but relies instead on cut and drapery to gain much the same effect. Every line above the belt in Dior's designs for Fall achieves a rounded look, as if his cutters had used a compass.

Shoulders are rounded, and flow into the sleeve line with no break. The natural roundness of the bust is accentuated in various ways, but always softly and subtly. Shoulders are cut wider, but not square, the widest part falling below the point of the shoulder in a curving line.

There's not a set-in sleeve in a carload of Dior designs, all sleeves being on the dolman or draped variety, cut in one with the body of the dress, with deep armhole and fluid line.

The French designer, now doing a land-office business in New York, thinks of skirts merely as "stems" this season, and makes tham completely straight and narrow, except for a few exceptions in the cocktail and evening dress category.

The small waist is accented, often by a wide cummerbund.

Big cape and shawl collars lend further aid to the wide-at-the-top silhouette, while designed as flattering frames for the face

Dior uses a great deal of polished black broadcloth for dressy suits and coats, alternates it with chiffon-weight textured tweeds, mostly in muted tones of gray and brown.

With his ensembles, Dior shows small pillbox hats, worn absolutely centered and tilted slightly forward.

Lausche Lauds Ohio Highway Program

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche today termed the highway program adopted by the 100th General Assembly "a substantial step in the right direction."

The program, adopted by the Legislature that quit work Tuesday night is geared to an axle-mile tax on big trucks based on the number of axles and distance traveled.

"If there are weaknesses in the axle-distance tax measure," the governor told newsmen, "they will, of course, have to be remedied in the future.

"But, the principle has been established that payment for the construction and maintenance of highways must have a relationship to the use a motorist makes of the highways and the damage he does to them.

"I believe the adoption of the highway financing program is a substantial step in the right direction.

"My doubts, however, are grave about the need of issuing 500 million dollars of state bonds for highway building purposes. However, the people themselves will pass upon that question."

The bond issue proposal, designed to speed up construction of inter-urban highways, will go on ballots in the November election.

Gov. Lausche advocated pay-as-you-go highway financing.

Judge Studies Tax Case Of Alliance Inventor

CLEVELAND (AP) — U. S. Tax Court Judge Marion J. Harron has taken under advisement the government's $126,000 income tax claim against C. Gilbert Taylor, Alliance, O., plane inventor

Taylor's son, Lt. Robert H. Taylor, 31, and his daughter, Mrs. Robert W. Sharp, testified in their father's behalf Tuesday.

The inventor claims it was a strictly business arrangement when he took the two into his plane parts business as partners back in 1943.

The government, seeking the tax for 1943 through 1945, insists Taylor merely used the arrangement to split his income among his family.

Jean Stitle In Norway For Farm Youth Training Program

Miss Jean Stitle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stitle of RD 4, Salem, arrived in Norway June 29 as one of four American delegates to Norway under the 1953 International Farm Youth Exchange program.

Miss Stitle landed at Bremerhaven, Germany, June 27 after a 10-day trip from Montreal on the Swedish-American liner Anna Salen. There were 27 American IFYE delegates on board.

She spent three days in Oslo for an orientation period with the other three delegates to Norway, Miss Helen Cronin of Lewis County, W. Orientation included a day's visit to the Royal Norwegian Agricultural school at Aas, and a briefing by George Dietz, agricultural attache at the American Embassy.

From July 2-30 she is staying on the farm of Kristian Hognestad. This was interrupted by a trip to South Kristiansand for the week of July 7-12 to attend the second all-Scandinavian Farm Youth Congress.

On July 30 she will attend the annual meeting of Norwegian Young Farmers at Voss, and from there she will move to the farm of Bottolv Braatalie to work during August.

In September Miss Stitle will attend Hedmark Domestic Science School at Elverum, and on Sept. 20 she will begin work on the farm of Bjarne Brrastad.

At the end of October she will have about 10 days free time for traveling before she boards the Queen Elizabeth at Cherbourg, France, Nov. 5.

She is a senior at Ohio State University, majoring in home economics. After graduation, she plans to be a home demonstration agent.

During her ten years of 4-H club work, Miss Stitle has been a club officer, a junior leader for two years, counsellor and discussion leader at Ohio 4-H Club Congress, and a member of the University 4-H Club. She worked one summer as a county 4-H Club Agent, in charge of all girls' 4-H Club activities.

A total of 81 American farm youths will go to Europe during 1953 as IFYE delegates. Since the IFYE project is founded on the belief that understanding is the key to world peace, all IFYE delegates share their experiences with youth organizations and civic clubs in their own states.

As of March 1, 1953, IFYE delegates had given over 23,000 personal appearance talks to a total audience of over 2.2 million people. In addition they have given over 3000 radio talks, have made about 550 TV appearances, and have either written or been written about in 15,000 newspaper articles.

The exchange is financed by local farm clubs, youth clubs, civic clubs, and individual foundations. Since the project began in 1948, 279 delegates from the United States have participated, and 217 foreign youths have come to the United States as IFYE exchangees.

Chicago Blonde Is Miss U. S.

Myrna Hansen Seeks Miss Universe Title

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — A beautifully proportioned blonde from Chicago, newly crowned Miss United States, faces the prettiest girls from 25 other lands tonight in the preliminaries of the Miss Universe contest.

Myrna Rae Hansen, 18, was a standout in the finals of the Miss United States competition, but the goiny promises to be keener tonight.

Miss Hansen, selected as Miss Illinois after winning a Chicago press photographers' contest, took 59 out of 60 points on the judges' final ballot last night.

Warm brown eyes and an even, white smile proved telling assets for Miss Hansen, who is of Danish-German descent. No less important is the way her 125 pounds are mounted on a 5-foot, 7-inch frame: 37-inch bust, 25-inch waist and 35-inch hips.

She shed just a tear or two and her lips quivered as a gold and silver crown was placed on her head by Ruth Hampton, movie starlet and herself a contestant from New Jersey in 1952.

Miss Hansen also will receive a film contract from Universal-International Studio and a British sports car.

Runner-up to Miss United States was personable, brunette Mary Griffin of Myrtle Beach, S. C. Mrs. Doris Edwards of Birmingham, Ala., was third; Nancy Petraborg, Seattle, Wash., fourth; and Shauna Wood, Salt Lake City, Utah, fifth. All received trophies.

Miss Petraborg survived the near loss of her slip onstage to make the finals. She clutched at it, rushed out to make repairs and then returned to receive loud bursts of applause.

Historical Society Convenes At Lisbon 'Old Stone House'

"Get some objectives. It takes some incentive to make an organization go. Where there is a will to preserve old things, there will eventually be a way," Attorney George L. Lafferty, president of the Lisbon Historical Society, told members of the Salem Historical Society Tuesday evening.

The Salem society held its meeting at the Old Stone Tavern, Lisbon. This house built in 1805 by Lewis Kinney of native sandstone is reputed to be the oldest stone building in Ohio. There are only a few of this type in the United States according to Attorney Lafferty.

In reviewing the history of the Lisbon society, which was incorporated in 1939, Attorney Lafferty stated that the society purchased the old tavern at a cost of $3,000. At one time it was used by the Church of the Nazarene as a place of worship.

This tavern, now the society's museum, filled with interesting antique furniture, dishes, books, pictures, etc., has become popular with the public. Hundreds of people have visited it since it was opened in April, 1951.

Special visiting days are observed. However, during the Lisbon Sesquicentennial celebration, July 18 to July 26, the museum will be open daily from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

"We build for the future on the things of the past," said Mr. Lafferty in stressing the importance of preserving valuable old things for future generations.

One exhibition was a well-worn leather saddle bag, used by Joseph Maus, who came to Lisbon in 1818. His first job was to carry mail on horseback between the county seat and Philadelphia. The trip took two weeks each way. At that time there were no stamps and no envelopes. Among the books was a large German Bible made with woodcuts before the printing press was invented. The date stitched into one quilt was 1848. A 90-year-old wall newspaper rack was made of thin black slats put together with white headed tacks.

On an ornate background were these words of Abraham Lincoln: "I like to see a man proud of the place in which he lives and I like to see a man so live that his place will be proud of him." They were set in an oak leaf frame.

Mrs. G. A. Rogers, hostess at the museum, also directs the arranging of the antiques.

The Lisbon Historical Society is sponsoring the village sesquicentennial celebration. "If there are any proceeds from the celebration they will go back to the society," Mr. Lafferty stated.

Members of the Salem society in the group were Attorney George H. Bowman, Jr., president, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Melitschka, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snevel, Harold Harman, P. E. Harris, Miss Estelle Mayerhofer, Miss Helen French, Mrs. Mary Juergens, and Misses Sara and Pearl Walker. Guests were Mrs. Bernice Burkle and Mrs. Ada Tice of Salem, and Mrs. Oliver F. Thomas of Utica, N.Y. The Aug. 11 meeting will be at the Bowman home, Highland Ave., featuring a coverdish supper.

A quilt made by the women will be given to Rev. and Mrs. Milton Coleman who leave soon for the mission field in India.

Mrs. Bailey led in prayer and the devotional service was led by Mrs. William Dinsio. In responding to roll call the women told their various reactions to what missionaries tell of their work.

11 Games Scheduled Today, Tonight After All-Star Holiday

Dodgers Face Cards, Braves Meet Bucs; Yanks In St. Louis

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

Major league ballplayers put away their fishing poles and go back to work today after a three-day midsummer All-Star holiday.

As if to make up for lost time, the majors scheduled 11 games for today and tonight, with most of the action coming after dark.

Charlie Dressen awoke from his three-day dream during which he controlled the talents of such pitchers as Robin Roberts, Warren Spahn and Curt Simmons and resumed his daily agony of trying to find a winning assortment from among the throwers on his Brooklyn Dodgers.

The Dodgers return to action with a game and a half lead in the too-close-for-comfort National League pennant chase, facing St. Louis tonight in the first of a four-game series at home.

Dressen, whose National League All-Stars came out on top at Cincinnati as expected, decided to give Preacher Roe another chance to recover his once-powerful wizardry over the Cards in the first game.

Milwaukee's second-place Braves open their third Eastern invasion with a night game in Pittsburgh and the homer-happy Cincinnati Redlegs visit Philadelphia for a twilight-night twin bill.

The New York Giants, winner of seven straight before the Dodgers stopped them last Sunday, renew their battle for a first division spot in a night game against Chicago.

The New York Yankees, who won every game on their last Western swing, open their third four with a twi-night double-header against the lowly St. Louis Browns. Casey's biggest problem at the moment is young Mickey Mantle, his All-Star center fielder, now reported suffering with water on the knee.

From his Commerce, Okla., home Mantle reported he was ready to play in all four games against the Browns. But the indications were that Stengel would rest him for a vital double-header in Chicago Sunday.

The brash White Sox, who have moved from fifth place to a challenging second in a month, open their home stand with an all-daylight twin bill against Washington.

Cleveland's third-place Indians play host to the Philadelphia Athletics in a night game. Fourth-place Boston begins its invasion with a night game in Detroit.

Indians Play Host To Little League Teams

All of the members of the Little and Pony League teams in Salem will journey to Cleveland this Saturday as guests of the Cleveland Indians for a game between the Indians and the Philadelphia Athletics.

The invitation came about after the failure of the Indians' first baseman, Luke Easter, to appear at the opening of the Salem Little Leagues last June.

The boys will have an opportunity to meet Cleveland manager Al Lopez and some of the Cleveland players. It has been planned to give the Indian players two autographed baseballs with the names of all the Little Leaguers, wishing them luck in their race for the American League championship.

All Little League players, coaches, and managers who are planning on taking the trip are asked to be at the field next to Reilly Stadium at 8:45 a.m. Saturday with their lunches. Busses and private cars will be provided for transportation. All players having uniforms are asked to wear them. Others should wear their baseball caps.

The officers of the Little League need a few more cars to take the boys. Any one interested in driving is asked to contact League president John Herman Jr., vice-president, Louis Brown, or secretary, Bill Adams.

Texan Ousts Defending Public Links Champ

SEATTLE (AP) — A quiet talkin' Texas lad who wears blue jeans and travels a straight and narrow golfing trail moved into the limelight today after bumping the defending champion, Pete Bogan of Montebello, Calif., in the National Public Links tournament, 3 and 2.

Bogan bowed to 19-year-old Hal McComas of Dallas yesterday, joining two former champions on the sidelines. The only ex-titlist still in the running is portly Andy Szwedko of Pittsburgh, who has scrambled his way to four straight victories.

Only 16 players were left in the running today and before dark the two scheduled 18 hole rounds will pare the field to four. Tomorrow the semi-finalists will go 36 holes and another 36-hole match will decide the championship Saturday.

Inability to hit in the pinches caused the Salem Merchants to lose their second contest of the season Wednesday night when they bowed to East Liverpool, 5-3, in a game there.

The Merchants' record is now 14 wins against two losses.

Bob Theiss, Salem pitcher, struck out 10 men during the course of the game and walked six. Chuck Williams, hurling for East Liverpool, walked nine and fanned seven. Each team got five hits.

Both pitchers worked on the corners during the contest, accounting for the number of walks.

Salem left 11 runners stranded in the game, six of them in the third and sixth innings.

Eight players from Salem have been selected to play on the County All-Star team which is scheduled to meet Aliquippa, Pa. at East Palestine Sunday. The Salem players are Dick Wyss and Theiss, pitchers; Chuck Marks, catcher; Red Weingart and Kirby Laughlin, outfielders, and Bill Odorizzi, Don Miller and Lou Tisch, infielders.

Salem's next league game will be with Springfield Wednesday, the place to be announced later.

Poloists Seek Another Win Here Sunday

After a stunning victory over League-leading Harbor Hills last Sunday, the Salem Polo Club takes on another Columbus team, Columbus Farms, here this Sunday at the Polo field on the Ellsworth Rd.

Salem, half way through its 20th anniversary season, will be searching for its sixth victory in nine starts. Columbus Farms has two losses at the hands of the Salem riders over the July 4 weekend.

Willy Smith at the number one position, Jim Pidgeon Jr. at number two, and Tony Sheen at the number three slot, three of the original Polo team members, will take the field for Salem. Roy Bates from Alliance, a brilliant defensive player as well as goal maker, completes the Salem squad.

The Farms team goes with Bob Davis at number one, Ralph Fitch at number two, Otie Harris at number three, and Al Holman at the number four position.

Grid League Threatens No TV, Radio Of Games

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The National Football League says there will be no telecast or broadcast of NFL games if the govednment wins its anti-trust suit against the league.

Standing firmly on its contention that unlimited television and radio coverage "would destroy" professional football, the league filed a 92-page brief in U. S. District Court here yesterday denying its controlled TV and radio policy violates the Sherman anti-trust act.

A decision in the case is expected in the fall.

Starting near the end of this month, Little Leagues all over the nation will be starting the long, slow, grind to the National Little League championship.

The Salem All-Star team will be managed by Al Catlos, with Ralph Mancuso and Wendell Church serving as coaches. ## Mitchell, Avila To Be Back In Action Tonight

CLEVELAND (AP) — Cleveland's Indians, strengthened by the return of Dale Mitchell and Bobby Avila, swing back into action tonight in the opener of a three-game series with the Philadelphia Athletics.

Another minor casualty turned up, however, when pitcher Early Wynn developed an infection under the nail of his right index finger.

Avila suffered a shoulder and heel injury July 6 in a collision with Harry Simpson, who still is sidelined.

Mitchell was hitting .304 and had batted safely in 21 consecutive games when he injured a heel tendon while sliding into second base Friday night.

Wynn was to have pitched tonight to open the 12-game stand, but now is expected to remain out until Sunday.

The Tribe now is 8½ games out of first and 3½ out of second and there are only 65 games to go. Unless the club picks up ground quickly, it can almost count itself out of the pennant race.

Mike Garcia will start for Cleveland tonight, facing Alex Kellner.

Mullins, Sekely Whip V.F.W., Fisher's News

The Mullins Little League squad edged the V.F.W., 6-5, and Sekely whipped Fisher's News, 7-1, last night at Centennial Park in Major League play.

Mullins won out over the V.F.W. in an extra inning game after the Vets came through with three runs in the last of the sixth inning to tie the score. Kendra singled for Mullins in the top of the seventh and Wukotich scored him with a double. For the Vets, Morlan, Dubbs, Martin and Everett each had one hit. The V.F.W. had 12 hits, while the winning Mullins squad had nine.

Giving up a hit to Altomore, the first batter to face him, Smith, Sekely pitcher, tossed no hit ball for the remainder of the game. A walk and an error in the last inning allowed Fisher to score its lone run. Smith, with a double, and Brown, with a double and a single, were the batting stars for Sekely's.

Freshley had hits for Homeworth.

Marciano 3-1 Favorite To Whip La Starza Sept. 24

$500,000 Gate Seen; TV May Be Out; Roland Confident

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—The early odds make Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano a 3-1 favorite over Roland La Starza in their Sept. 24 title fight at the Polo Grounds, but the college-bred challenger is unimpressed.

"I know I can beat him," the former City College of New York student said today. "I have wanted another shot at him ever since he won that split decision over me 3½ years ago. I didn't think he won then. I don't think he can again.

"Rocky may have more poise now but I don't think he can hit any harder."

Although the fight has been more or less sealed for days, the contract-signing ceremonies were staged with the usual fanfare and presence of the sport's ranking brass yesterday at the offices of the State Athletic Commission.

Jim Norris, head of the International Boxing Club, predicted a half-million-dollar gate, not counting possible television monies, and said all video angles would be explored. He hinted home television is out if the $500,000 expected gate might be jeopardized in any way. Theater TV is a distinct possibility.

The 29-year-old Marciano and the 26-year-old La Starza said they planned to set up training quarters in the next few days.

Marciano, deeply tanned and trim-looking from a two weeks' vacation in Toronto, said he would make camp at Grossinger's in the Catskill Mountains. La Starza hasn't decided but is considering a resort not more than 15 miles from where the champion will sharpen his punches.

The bout will be the second between the two. Back in March 1950 when both were aspiring undefeated gladiators, Rocky beat Roland in a split decision at Madison Square Garden.

La Starza was felled by one of Marciano's rocking right - hand shots but he got up to finish strong. Roland is a clever boxer but lacks Rocky's knockout punching power.

It will be the second title defense for Marciano, the Brockton, Mass., shoemaker's son who knocked out Jersey Joe Walcott for the title at Philadelphia last Sept. 23 and then stopped Walcott in Chicago May 15 in the first round.

BIG PITCH—Billy Pierce, left, of the White Sox is making a bid for strikeout honors in the American League. Gerry Staley, center, is the Cardinals' old dependable. Max Surkont was off to a fast start with the Braves.

Legion Team Seeks Star Tribe Studied

EASTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP) — Massachusetts American Legion junior baseball authorities today were seeking a speedy method of delivering an absolving affidavit of Frank Lejac Jr., suspended 17-year-old Easthampton post team star, to national headquarers in Indianapolis.

During a five-hour session with Philip E. Carey, chairman of the Massachusetts department's baseball committee, Lejac and his father denied under oaths that the youngster had accepted any gratuities while making a recent Eastern swing with the Cleveland Indians.

When Carey contacted William Jarvis, administrator of American Legion junior baseball, in Indianapolis by telephone early today, the latter refused to take further action until he had been provided "with Lejac's affidavit or a suitable facsimile."

Meanwhile, General Manager John Quinn of the Milwaukee Braves, has revealed that baseball Commissioner Ford Frick has fined his club as well as Cleveland and the New York Giants for attempting to negotiate wtih young Lejac.

"We knew Lejac had graduated from high school but we did not know his affiliation with American Legion junior baseball when he was brought to Milwaukee for a tryout by us," Quinn explained.

A six-foot-four 200-pounder, young Lejac is a first baseman and was an outstanding hitter in Massachusetts schoolboy circles during the recent season.

Gavilan Defeats Ramon Fuentes

Unanimous Decision Goes To Cuban Champ

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Cuban Kid Gavilan, world welterweight champion, working earnestly but not under full steam, scored an unanimous 10-round decision last night over busy and rugged Ramon Fuentes of Los Angeles.

Gavilan's title was not at stake in the bout, the first one ever televised nationally from Wisconsin.

Fuentes, eighth-ranked welterweight in the country, said in his dressing room after the fight that he had been bothered by the heat inside the Milwaukee Arena. The champion's opinion of the fight and his opponent was, "I ween unanimous decision."

The only damaging blow of the bout was a solid right to the chin by Gavilan which sent Fuentes down for a nine count near the end of the seventh round. The Californian weathered the remaining 20 seconds of the round and was punching with both hands when the bell sounded.

How was Fuentes able to get away from him after the knockdown? Gavilan smiled, shrugged and said, "I no want to keel heem."

Gavilan, weighing 152¼ to 148¾ for his foe, stalked Fuentes most of the way, punching in flurries to mark up points and the rest of the time being content to keep Fuentes away. The champion's famed bolo punch was thrown often.

A slim crowd of 4,079, who paid a gross gate of $13,419.20, favored the Californian throughout, resulting in more boos than cheers during the bout.

Gavilan received 30 per cent of the net gate of $11,182.08, Fuentes 20 per cent. Each received $3,600 from the TV receipts.

Redlegs To Oppose Phillies Tonight

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs, who had their most successful Eastern trip in years on their last jaunt to these parts, were hopeful today for more of the same as they prepared to open a 13-game visit to Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Pittsburgh and New York.

They drew a tough assignment here, however, for tonight's twi-night doubleheader with the Phils. They were scheduled to face the pitching of Robin Roberts and Curt Simmons, two of the hurlers who did such a great job in Tuesdays All-Star game at Cincinnati.

Manager Rogers Hornsby was expected to counter with Ken Raffensberger and either Harry Perkowski or Bud Podbielan.

The Redlegs started their Eastern trip 7½ games behind the fifth place New York Giants and they had a 5½ game cushion over the seventh place Chicago Cubs.

Attacks

Army commander, made a hurried inspection trip to the flaming East-Central Front, then returned to his headquarters here.

Frontline reports filtering through heavy censorship said there was no major fighting in the 15-mile stretch between the northward-pressing ROKs near the Kumsong River and the Reds new southward push toward Kumhwa.

First reports on the new battle said the Reds were curling around the southern base of Sniper Ridge which was abandoned as an outpost after the ROK Capital Division — immediately to the east— was forced back under the weight of the Red offensive Monday and Tuesday.

The ground being fought over at Kumhwa was the area of the five-week battle for Sniper Ridge last October and November when the 2nd ROK Division lost nearly 10,000 men taking the height.

Sniper is only about three miles from Kumhwa itself.

Kumhwa, protected by a single hill on its west side, lies as a prize between the twin claws of Triangle Hill and Sniper Ridge, which descend from the towering 3,600-foot Communist fortress of Papa-San, only four miles north of the road junction.

Any battle around Kumhwa could turn into one of the great actions of the war. Kumhwa, in the exact center of the Allied front, controls five major arterial roads in its area and is the keystone of the 8th Army front in its present line.

Allied officers said South Koreans on the Kumsong Front launched their counter-offensive on standing orders to march when the Red drive petered out, as happened Wednesday.

Exact area of the ROK attack was cloaked by censorship. But it was in the general area where Gen. Maxwell Taylor, U. S. 8th Army commander, reported the earlier withdrawal—roughly at the junction of the Kumsong and Pukhan Rivers and somewhat to the west on the East-Central Front

All reports from the battle zone were subject to heavy censorship.

The ROK division in the center of the attack reported gaining up to a mile by early afternoon and divisions on each flank also moved north, but more slowly, the 8th Army said.

Clearing skies permitted swarms of Allied warplanes to pound the Chinese for the first time.

The tank-supported South Korean columns rolled north under the personal observation of their hard-boiled chief of staff, Gen. Sun Yup Paik, and with an exhortation from President Syngman Rhee not to "Yield even one inch of ground regardless of its importance."

Gen. Mark W. Clark, U. N. Far East commander, told newsmen on arrival in Seoul en route to a first-hand look at the battle, "The front situation appears to be in hand from reports I have deceived."

Associated Press Correspondent Forrest Edwards accompanied Gen. Paik on a helicopter tour of the embattled ROK division.

Edwards said Paik is confident the Chinese will be thrown back and kept north of the Kumsong River. Earlier, an ROK corps commander said he is confident his men would be able to push back to the river.

Summing up his tour, Paik said, "Discipline and morale much better. I give 'em all hell."

Allied fighter-bombers opened their attack at dawn by knocking out the main bridge on the Kumsong River just west of its junction with the Pukhan, the Air Force said. Although the span had been mined, the ROKs had failed to blow it up in their hurried withdrawal Tuesday.

The South Korean counterattack followed a lull in the fighting after the massive Red drive Monday and Tuesday. Allied officers said the Chinese puch. Although the greatest in two years, apparently was intended to be only a limited offensive, aimed at flattening the Allies Kumsong Bulge in the middle of the 155-mile front.

The officers expressed confidence any new Red attacks in the area would be held off, especially with air power back in action.

Asked if he thought the Chinese had attacked for propaganda purposes, Paik shook his head and said:

"The Chinese have many reasons for many things. Who knows what this one was?

Price Of Gasoline Up One Cent In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The price of gasoline in Ohio went up one cent a gallon today.

Gov. Frank J. Lausche signed a bill providing for the penny increase on gasoline and an axle-mile tax on trucks. The gasoline hike went into effect at 12:01 a. m., EST. The truck tax will not be collected until Oct. 1.

The one-cent boost raises the total of state taxes on gasoline to five cents a gallon. Federal taxes take two cents.

Revenues from the added gasoline tax and the axle-mile levy will be used to construct four-lane arterial highways in Ohio.

Legislators who passed the bill last week estimate the gasoline tax will bring in about 23 million dollars a year and the truck tax about $19,600,000 annually.

Bill For 2nd County Court Dies In Committee

Columbiana County Rep. Delmar O'Hara's bill to create a second common pleas court in Columbiana County, apparently died in committee in the senate of Ohio's 100th General Assembly, it was learned today.

The bill, passed by a large margin in the House, was referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee, but was never brought to the floor for debate.

It was not clear whether the holdup on the bill came in the Judiciary Committee or in the Rules Committee.

The government says he wasn't in that type of business.

In 1949 alone, Palmero told U. S. Tax Judge Marion J. Harron yesterday, he lost nearly $125,000 reselling three of the machines. He bought them from the Marion Power Shovel Co.

the Soviet occupation and was appointed to the zonal justice department in 1947 as an assistant to Fechner. Together they set out to "democratize" justice by suppressing all "reactionaries."

When Fechner became minister of justice in 1949, she was raised to the Supreme Court. Returning from a trip to the Soviet Union about that time, she claimed Soviet justice was "decades ahead of what we have here."

Her career reached a fearsome height in 1952 when for three months she presided at a series of "show trials" of alleged political and economic criminals.

She condemned two to the guillotine, eight others to life imprisonment and handed out sentences totaling 190 years to 17 other accused. In Western courts, their crimes at the most would have been classed as misdemeanors.

Rib Roast, Gravy Is Sunday Treat

A large rib roast for Sunday dinner — there's a welcome and practical suggestion. We spent several hours with Monica Clark at the American Meat Institute's test kitchens in Chicago.

She is director of home economics and this is her latest report on how to cook standing rib roasts, just as she wrote it:

Rib roast of beef is a snap to prepare — it's a one-two-three proposition of placing the roast in a shallow pan (bone side down), inserting a meat thermometer and slipping it into the oven. No watching or basting is required.

At one time it was thought necessary to sear a roast in a hot oven to brown it thoroughly on the outside. Now the recommendation of the meat industry is to use one oven thermometer throughout the roasting period — 325 degrees F.

This not only is a simpler procedure, but also results in less shrinkage and more servings. Incidentally, the roast browns beautifully without an initial searing.

Extra Roasting Pointers

1. There's no need to flour a roast before cooking, nor to baste it during cooking. The fat on the outside of the roast drips down over the meat, acting as a self-baster.

2. Use a meat thermometer, inserting it into the center of the roast. This is the only way to be absolutely sure your roast is cooked to just the degree of doneness you like — rare, medium or well done.

3. Roast a rib roast of beef at 325 degrees F. and follow this time schedule:

Rare — 22 minutes per pound, 140 degrees F. internal temperature.

Medium — 26 minutes per pound, 160 degrees F. internal temperature.

Well - done — 30 minutes per pound, 170 degrees F. internal temperature.

Rib Roast Gravy — The drippings left in the pan for gravy making will not be excessive, especially if the roast has been cooked to the rare stage.

All the flavor and goodness will be in the meat and not in the drippings. The procedure for making rib roast gravy is as follows:

Spoon off most of the fat, blend a little flour with the fat and drippings, then add only a small amount of water, ½ to 1 cup. Stir constantly until thickened. Taste gravy and add a little more water if gravy can be diluted.

If the flavor is not full-bodied, add a little bouillon or meat extract. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

STRAWBERRY CREAM LOAF

½ cup sifted cake flour
½ teaspoon double acting baking powder
⅛ teaspoon salt
2 large eggs
½ cup sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons cold water
½ cup cream
1 cup sliced sweetened fresh strawberries

Grease an 8-inch square pan; line bottom with waxed paper; grease paper. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt.

Beat eggs with rotary beater until thick and lemon-colored. Beat in sugar gradually until mixture is ivory - colored and "ribbons" when beater is lifted and moved back and forth. Beat in vanilla.

Sift in dry ingredients, folding them in as you do so. Fold in water. Turn into prepared pan. Bake in slow (325 F.) oven until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean — about 25 minutes.

Remove from oven and run spatula around sides of pan; turn out on paper sprinkled with confectioners' sugar; remove waxed paper. Cool.

Beat cream and sweeten to taste; drain strawberries thoroughly and fold them into cream. Cut cake in half; spread one half with strawberry-cream; place other half on top. Makes 5 servings.

3 tablespoons bacon drippings or other fat

Mix 2 tablespoons flour and sugar together in saucepan. Add tomatoes, catchup, vinegar, mustard, chili powder, paprika, Worcestershire sauce and onion. Stir over low heat until thickened.

Wipe liver with damp cloth; dry; cut in serving size portions. Mix 3 tablespoons flour and salt; coat liver on all sides with this mixture. Brown liver quickly in bacon drippings in 10-inch skillet; pour sauce over liver; simmer about 20 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 4 servings.

If you want a stew to make a hit, season it well! Catchup, Worcestershire sauce, and chili powder will give it real tang.

Try Tomato Rarebit For Summer Dish

Sunday afternoon visitors are apt to be more frequent with the warm sunny days of summer luring people away from home.

You'll be well prepared for unexpected supper guests with the makings for this easy rarebit on hand—and they're all items which store well so you need never be without any of them. It's simple to make, it's good and it's satisfying.

TOMATO RAREBIT AND OLIVE RICE

1 1-3 cups packaged precooked rice
1½ cups water
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup chopped stuffed olives
2 tablespoons butter
1 can tomato soup
1-3 cup milk
8 ounces cheese, grated or cut in cubes
½ teaspoon dry mustard

Combine rice, water and salt in saucepan. Mix just until all rice is moistened. Bring quickly to a boil over high heat, uncovered, fluffing rice gently once or twice with a fork. Do not stir.

Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 10 minutes. Add olives and butter to rice; mix lightly with a fork.

Meanwhile combine soup, milk, cheese and mustard in saucepan. Stir over low heat until cheese is melted and mixture is hot. Serve over the olive rice. Makes 6 servings.

Sharp or milk Cheddar or processed cheese may be used in this recipe. Grate Cheddar cheese and cubes before adding to the milk.

ORANGE BEETS bf

2 bunches beets (a scant 1½ pounds without tops)
¼ cup sugar
2 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup orange juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Pare beets and slice thin; there should be about 4½ cups sliced. Mix together sugar, flour and salt thoroughly in top of double boiler. Stir in orange juice and lemon juice until smooth. Add butter.

Cook over gently boiling water, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add beets; stir well so they are all coated with sauce. Cover; continue to cook over gently boiling water, sitrring occasionally, until beets are tender — about 1½ hours. Makes 6 servings.

SHOP AT HOME FIRST.

TANGY SHIRRED EGGS

¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup flour
2 cups milk
1 cup diced cheddar cheese
¼ cup chopped canned pimiento
½ cup chopped ripe olives
salt
6 eggs
toast

Melt butter over low heat; blend in flour. Add milk all at once and continue to cook and stir over low heat until thickened and bubbly. Add cheese, pimiento, olives and salt to taste; cook and stir until cheese melts.

Divide sauce among 6 individual 6-inch baking dishes. Break one egg into each dish. Bake in slow (325 F.) oven until egg is as firm as desired.

Cut each of 6 slices of buttered toast into 4 triangles; tuck 4 of the triangles around the sides of each dish. Serve with additional toast. Makes 6 servings.

RAISIN CHEWS

1 cup sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1½ cups seedless raisins
1 cup walnut meats
3 eggs
1 cup sugar
2 teaspoons vanilla
confectioners' sugar

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Rinse raisins; drain. Chop raisins and walnuts coarsely with sharp knife. Beat eggs vigorously until very foamy; gradually beat in sugar until mixture begins to get thick and a pale yellow color. Stir in raisins, walnuts and vanilla. Gradually stir in flour, mixing thoroughly. Pour into buttered pan (about 12 by 8 by 2 inches). Bake in moderate (350F) oven about 30 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cool in pan; cut into 24 pieces and roll in confectioners' sugar.

FIESTA GREEN BEANS

1 pound snap beans
¾ cup boiling water
¼ teaspoon salt
one 8-ounce can creamstyle corn
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 canned pimiento
salt and pepper

Cut ends from snap beans and scrub in cold water with vegetable brush; drain. Cut beans in about 1-inch diagonal pieces.

Put boiling water, ¼ teaspoon salt and beans in saucepan and cook quickly, covered, until just tender-crisp. Drain off any small amount of liquid remaining in saucepan. Add corn, butter, pimiento, and salt and pepper to taste. Reheat. Makes 4 servings.

Home Dressed Meats — Always

We are at that time of the year when there is very little dry fed Beef to be had. But we dry feed beef the year 'round so we never have to sell grass cattle. That makes a bigger difference in quality than most people realize. Last week a lady asked the price of our chuck roast. I told her 49c per pound. She said last week she bought some at another market cheaper, but that ours was surely much nicer. So there are a few still want good meat and will make a little effort to get it. Remember regardless of the time of year, price or conditions we will not vary the quality of our meat. Why not buy your meat where you know the quality is always the best?

That Cake In The Window

Some home cooks look os wistfully at a cake in a baker's window as the little girl in the song looks at the doggie.

How to achieve that professional touch?

One way is to use a cake recipe that's different, new, and interesting, and yet does not make too many demands

This chocolate layer cake with its cutterscotch crunchines fills the bill. It gets fancied up in the baking, and doesn't ask you to be a wizard with a cake decorating set.

When we made the cake we served part of it one day, and refrigerated the rest. It was just as delicious after its overnight chilling as right after it was baked.

If uou want to add the lacy topadd the lacy topping, put a paper doily with a bold pattern in the center of the cake. Cover the rest of the cake with waxed paper cut to fit around the outside edge of the doily and hold it in place with toothpicks.

Gently sift confectioners' sugar through a fine strainer over the doily, making sure the doily is lying flat and that you do not rustle it. After that, carefully lifting the sugar-sprinkled doily straight up does the trick.

BUTTERSCOTCH CHOCOLATE CAKE

2 squares (2 ounces) unsweetened chocolate
1-3 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs
¾ cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 package vanilla pudding mix

Prepare the Butterscotch Base. For the chocolate batter, melt chocolate and shortening in double boiler. Beat in sugar and eggs thoroughly.

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together; stir into chocolate mixture alternately with milk. Add vanilla. Spread on top of cooled Butterscotch Base in pans. Bake in moderate (350 F.) oven 30 to 35 minutes or until cake tester comes ou. clean.

Remove from pans and cool on wire racks. Prepare vanilla pudding mix according to package directions. When cool, spread between layers. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar.

BUTTERSCOTCH BASE

1-3 cup sifted flour
1 cup uncooked quick or old-fashioned rolled oats
1-3 cup firmly packed brown sugar
½ cup chopped pecans or walnuts
1-3 cup butter or margarine

Grease 2 eight-inch round pans; line with waxed paper; grease paper. Mix flour, rolled oats, sugar and nutmeats. Pour melted butter over and mix well.

Pack into prepared pans. Bake in hot (400 F.) oven 5 minutes. Remove from oven and let cool in pans while preparing chocolate batter to pour over Butterscotch Base.

Melon Coolers Are Low In Calories

Summer always means lots of cantaloupes on the menu. For dieters, this is the easy season. A half of a 4½ inch cantaloupe (that's a large one) contains only 30 calories. But it is rich in vitamins, particularly A and C.

Our friend Helen E. Goodrich of Los Angeles is a cantaloupe enthusiast. She declares: "It's fun to have chilled cantaloupe halves for breakfast — or fill the prepared melon halves with a combination of fresh summer fruits, top with a "dollop" of sherbet and serve on letuce cups. Presto —a beautiful salad!

"For cantaloupe a la mode, fill the halves with a scoop of ice cream. Serve at once with or without the embellishment of crushed and sweetened fresh berries.

"Of course the perfect dessert to present to the weight-watchers is an unadorned chilled cantaloupe half, served with squeezable sections of fresh lemon or lime."

With a little practice you can pick a perfect melon every time. Vine-ripened, mature cantaloupes have two definite "signposts" to guide you. 1—Look for a slightly sunken, smooth, well-calloused scar at the stem end.

This "fingerprint" is your guarantee that the cantaloupe was vine-ripened and picked at the peak of its flavor. 2—Check the netting. It should be well developed and stand out in bold relief over the surface of the entire cantaloupe.

Above all, don't be a "bruiser." A slight softening may indicate a mature melon, but, then again, "bruisers" ahead of you may have softened an immature melon. Don't be misled. Depend on the quality of the netting and the characteristic "fingerprint" at the stem end in choosing perfect cantaloupes.

Melon Cooler
(Makes 6 servings)

One package lemon-flavored gelatin
1 cup hot water
1 cup cold water
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1½ cups melon balls or cubes (cantaloupe, watermelon and honeydew)

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add cold water and lemon juice. Chill. When slightly thickened fold in melon balls or cubes. Chill until firm.

Petite Coffee Cakes Are Attractive

Summer's a delightful time for entertaining but then any time is certain to be delightful when you serve these little coffee cakes. Flavored with instant coffee, they add an attractive touch to your parties, teas, luncheons or dinners.

PETITE COFFEE CAKES

1 pkg. prepared yellow cake mix
¾ cup sugar
1½ tablespoons cornstarch
1 tablespoon instant coffee
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ cups milk
2 tablespoons butter
½ teaspoon vanilla

Prepare cake according to package directions. Pour batter into pan. Grease a 15 by 10 by 1 inch baking pan. Line with waxed paper and grease again.

Bake in moderate oven (375 F.) 15 minutes. Cool on rack. With a sharp knife, split cake in half to make two layers.

Spread filling on cut side of bottom layer. Place cut side of other half of cake over filling. Frost top of cake with coffee butter frosting. Let stand about 30 minutes.

Cut into rectangles, squares, diamonds, or other desired shapes. If desired, decorate with confectioners' sugar icing, pressed through a decorating tube.

For filling, combine sugar, cornstarch, coffee, and salt in small saucepan. Gradually add milk; stir until smooth. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil. Remove from heat. Stir in butter and vanilla. Cool.

Coffee Butter Frosting: Beat ½ cup soft butter until creamy. Add 4 teaspoons instant coffee, 2 teaspoons breakfast cocoa and about ¼ lb. sifted confectioners' sugar, blend well.

Continue adding ¾ lb. confectioners' sugar alternately with 4 to 5 tablespoons milk or cream, beating well after each addition, until mixture is of spreading consistency. Makes enough for top of 15 by 10 by 1-inch cake.

Try Crisp Waffles With Currant Jelly

For breakfast, how about waffles with currant or apple jelly? Mrs. D. G. Harrison of Joplin, Mo., says her family recipe is a success every time. So what are we waiting for?

Crisp Waffles

2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
¾ teaspoon salt
2 eggs well beaten
1 ¾ cups milk
½ cup melted shortening, butter or margarine
currant or apple jelly

Sift flour, baking powder, sugar and salt together. In a bowl, combine eggs, milk and shortening; mix thoroughly. Stir in sifted dry ingredients; beat until smooth. Bake in hot waffle iron.

Serve hot crisp waffles with butter or margarine and currant or apple jelly.

For a substantial meatless luncheon dish, dry this:

Egs in Parsley Thyme Sauce
(Makes 8 servings)

2 tablespoons chopped onions
1-3 cup chopped parsley
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
⅛ teaspoon powdered thyme
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups liquefied nonfat dry milk
4 English muffins
8 hardcooked eggs, quartered lengthwise

In a saucepan, saute onions and parsley in butter over low heat. Cook until onions are lightly browned. Remove from heat. Add flour, thyme and salt; blend well.

Gradually stir in liquefied nonfat dry milk, blending until smooth. Place over medium heat and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened, about 3 minutes.

Split and toast English muffins. Arrange one egg (quartered) on each muffin half. Pour sauce over eggs. Serve at once.

Try Cooking Fancy Dishes For Yourself

The baby's still in the bottle stage and the older children are at camp? You're a mother who eats an uninteresting bite - and - nibble lunch all by yourself?

Or maybe you're a career girl who lives alone and loves it—except for those nights you have a solo supper?

Then you've no idea what a wonderful thing a banquet for one can be. So comfortable to lean back and luxuriate in a delectable meal, to let your thoughts wander where they will, to plan and dream. Or to prop up that novel you've been dying to read and enjoy it, while you eat, without a single interruption.

Preparing an attractive meal for yourself doesn't have to mean more work — there are lots of interesting dishes that can be made quickly and easily in small quantity. Get yourself a supply of paper plates in a couple of sizes; when you're through, throw them airily away.

We used to turn up our nose at paper plates —but that was before they went both functional and glamorous. Now they come in pretty shades, convenient sizes, and with plastic - coated surfaces that stand up well under any type of food —hot, cold, moist or dry. Nice to know, too, that they're sold in economy-size lots, with anywhere from 30 to 100 plates in a cellophane - wrapped package. So horde some of your housekeeping money — give him chopped beef instead of T-bone steak — and treat yourself to this convenience. Or set your hair yourself one week, and splurge on these handy aids.

Every good cook needs rehearsals. What better time for a preview than when you're alone? Experiment with seasonings and garnishes, with methods of preparation. When you cook the dish for a duet or quartette, you'll feel confident. Your reward? Rave notices.

Are there some foods you love that you never get enough of? Go on a binge — and widen your culinary knowledge. If you're crazy about cheese, for instance, have it as often as you like — but in different ways.

Fold grated Cheddar cheese into your omelet; put a Roquefort spread on your hamburger; spoon a rarebit over a toasted English muffin. You've always wanted to try different kinds of cheese? Camembert? Scandinavian Gjetost? Italian Bel Paese? Dutch-type Gouda? Who's to stop you? Wake up and taste!

But one piece of stern advice: A six- or seven-inch skillet and a pint-size saucepan are indispensable for the sometime eat-aloner. So quick to cook or heat food in, so easy to clean.

Enjoy your possessions. You've had your main course on a paper plate —this intriguing tomato dish, whose recipe we're giving you, with a crunchy salad of escarole, green pepper rings and fluted cucumber.

Now bring out one of the silver dessert dishes Aunt Minnie gave you for a wedding present; put such a pretty easy-fix dessert, as this one that follows, on it. Then sit back and enjoy your gustatory adventure!

BAKED EGG IN TOMATO NEST

1 large tomato
salt and pepper
1 egg
1 tablespoon grated Cheddar cheese

Scoop center out of tomato, leaving a wall about ½ inch thick; sprinkle inside cavity lightly with salt and pepper. Drop egg into cavity; sprinkle with salt and pepper. Top with grated cheese. Place in small greased baking dish; bake in moderate (350F.) oven 25 minutes or until egg is set. Makes 1 serving.

FRILLED MELON - RASPBERRY CUP

Draw a zigzag pencil line around the center of a chilled cantaloupe. Now cut in half, following sigzag line so melon will be "frilled." Fill half with raspberries.

OPEN HAMBURGERS

1 pound ground chuck beef
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon finely grated onion (pulp and juice)
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
¼ cup firmly packed Roquefort
4 teaspoons mayonnaise

Mix beef, salt, pepper to taste, onion and Worcestershire together well; divide into 6 equal portions. Toast bread on one side only under broiler heat; spread meat mixture over untoasted side, being careful to cover edges. Place under broiler heat again until meat is as done as desired. Meanwhile mix Roquefort and mayonnaise; spread over broiled hamburger; return to broiler for a minute or two—just long enough to melt the cheese. Serve at once. Makes 4 servings, 1½ slices apiece.

It's fine if your small fry drink lots of fruit beverages in hot weather; but don't let these cool drinks replace the milk children need in their diets every day.

Does that lemonade pitcher and those tumblers look muggy? Just soak them in warm water in which a little baking soda has been dissolved, then wash as usual and your glassware will gleam.

Rice, Italian Meat Sauce Scores Hit

There will be no tardy tots avoiding the table if it is broadcast that tender rice with a savory Italian meat sauce is coming from the kitchen.

The wonderful aromas from the skillet or the saucepan will be plenty of publicity to arouse any "dallying Dads" and bring them to the head of the table in a hurry.

RICE WITH ITALIAN MEAT SAUCE

- 2 tablespoons fat
- ½ cup diced onion
- ½ cup diced green pepper
- 1 lb. ground beef
- 2 8-oz. cans tomato sauce
- ½ cup tomato catsup
- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- 4½ cups hot cooked rice

Melt the fat in a saucepan or skillet. Fry the onion, green pepper and beef in the fat until the onion and pepper are tender and the beef is cooked through and slightly browned.

Add more fat if necessary to keep mixture from sticking. Add the tomato sauce, the tomato catsup, Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper.

Cook over a low heat for 10 minutes. Serve over the hot cooked rice. Serves 10.

FIG STUFED APPLES

- 4 medium to large-size baking apples
- 4 large table figs
- ½ cup maple blended syrup
- ¼ cup water
- dash of salt

Wash and core apples all the way through; pare around stem end to remove a one inch band of skin. Place apples in deep 2-quart casserole. Rinse figs in hot water and clip off stems; cut each one into small pieces and stuff into apple core cavity. Mix together the maple-blended syrup, water and salt; pour over apples. Cover and bake in moderate (375 F.) oven 35 to 40 minutes, or until tender. Remove from oven and as apples cool keep spooning syrup in bottom of baking dish over them. Serve warm or cool with remaining syrup.

POTATOES CHANTILLY

- 4 medium size baking potatoes (about 1¼ pounds)
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon parsley
- ½ cup firmly packed grated cheddar cheese
- 3 tablespoons butter or margarine.
- ½ cup cream

Peel potatoes; cut into strips about ½ inch thick. Place potatoes in center of a large piece of heavyweight aluminum foil. Sprnkle wiith salt, pepper to taste, parsley and cheese; dot with butter. Turn edges of foil up, and pour cream over potatoes. Bring foil up over potatoes and fold edges together to make a tight package. Place on cookie sheet or shallow pan and bake in hot (425 F) oven 40 minutes. Transfer potatoes in foil to serving dish. Potatoes will absorb some of the sauce and the rest may be spooned over them. Makes 5 servings.

Pruning His Friends

By HAL BOYLE

(Editor's note: Every June bride has the task of pruning her husband's old garden of friends. But how? In the following article, third in a series of four, a panel of veteran husbands tells any bride how to meet this marital problem safely

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—What is the biggest mistake June brides may be making today in the post-honeymoon adjustment that takes place in all marriages?

A panel of veteran husbands I consulted thought that one of the commonest marital errors by wives was this:

"They try to get a husband to drop all his old friends, because they don't want to have to share their lover boy with anybody."

The all-male panel agreed it was unfair to expect any wife to have to put up with all her hubby's old buddies, as they probably include some who are "as big a bum as he used to be before he wised up and married her.' But they said it was a situation that was better corrected through time and tact, rather than direct action.

"Any young wife is going to have this problem, unless she married a hermit,' said one. "The thing to do is to weed out his friends gradually and gracefully. If she just waits, she will find his more objectionable friends will drift away anyway, as they will find him more boring and less fun the longer he is married."

"The worst thing a bride can do is to hurry the situation—to deliberately break up all his old friendships," said a second veteran. "That will create a Chinese wall of misunderstanding between them.

"She will find she has driven her husband further from her, not brought him closer. He will retreat to keep from being swallowed. For he will realize his wife is like a lady spider, which consumes her mate.

A third husband broke in:

"Boy, that was my first wife, all right—a lady spider, a barnacle with vocal chords. She managed to shuck off all my friends—but fast. I had to admire the way she did it. But after five lonely years of admiring her, I up and shucked her off, and got me a new wife."

"How's she?" someone asked.

"Oh, much better," he replied. "She says I am so housebroken by my first wife that she herself is willing to rend me a few friends to play poker with—just so she can get me out from under her feet at least one night a week. Wonderful woman!"

The other husbands nodded gravely. Then they drew up the following rules to guide any young bride in the delicate task of pruning her husband's thorny garden of friendship:

1. "Above all—go slow.'

2. "Help marry off his riffraff bachelor pals to your own girl friends you want to get rid of. What do you care if they never forgive you?"

3. "Praise your husband's worst friends to the skies. He will get sick even of hearing their names, because a man can't stand to hear a bum praised, even if the bum is his own brother.'

4. "Convince your husband he reason the food bills are so high is that his free-loading companions are eating and drinking him into bankruptcy. Suppose he does find out later it really is your relatives that are busting him up? One problem at a time."

5. "Be careful never to offend a friend that later in life your husband may want to borrow money from."

6. "Retain one or two steady, dependable, free-spending bachelors, and make them your friends. A wife often finds a good, sound bachelor more helpful than children for running errands, helping with the dishes—and he'll squire her out at night when her husband just wants to sit at home and listen to his tired dogs bark.'

7. "Let your husband keep at least one thoroughly objectionable friend. This will give him the sense of freedom, independence, escape and adventure every man needs in marriage."

But what about a bride who is stuck with a husband who stubbornly refuses to be weaned from his circle of disreputable pals, and spends more and more time with them?

"The only thing I can think of,' said one panel member, "is for the wife to go to work, save up enough dough to buy her husband a new car—and hope he'll take her riding in it instead of his friends."

HERE IS A GOOD BUY FOR THE WORKING MAN WITH FIVE ACRES OF LAND!!

This property is located seven miles northwest of Salem, nandy to Goshen Church. This property is surrounded by a nice large piece of timber. There would be some building lots sold off which would make nice sites for ranch type houses. Is improved with a five room house with enclosed glass front porch. This house is not finished but it has electricity and cistern water. The entire house needs to be plastered and also needs a bathroom put in as well as a new kitchen and new cupboards. This is practically new, has been built probably fifteen years, but looks nice. Has garage and chicken house. Now, with a little work and a little more expense, you would have a very comfortable house in a real setting. This is a real bargain at only $6,000.00.

McCarthy Won't Call Truman In Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) said today the FBI has assured him that former President Truman did not withhold any information he received from Canada about an atomic spy plot.

In view of this, McCarthy said, there would be no occasion for the Senate investigations subcommittee he heads to call Truman for questioning.

A little more than two weeks ago, while Truman was on his first trip East since leaving the White House, McCarthy said there had been "constant reports" that the ex-President had not turned over to the FBI a list of some 150 Soviet spy suspects received from Canadian authorities.

McCarthy fired off a letter to Atty. Gen. Brownell asking whether the Justice Department and the FBI ever got such a list from Truman. He called this a first step toward deciding whether to ask the investigations subcommittee to call Truman as a witness.

In New York at the time, Truman told newsmen he had no comment because "what I could tell you, you wouldn't print."

In answer to reporters' questions today, McCarthy said, "I've gotten assurances from the FBI that Truman did not withhold any information which he got from any Canadian source, including Mackenzie King, in regard to espionage."

He declined comment when asked specifically if Truman had turned over a list of names to the FBI.

Ohioans To Vote On 5 Constitution Changes

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Ohio voters will decide on five changes in the state's constitution in 1953 and 1954.

One change proposal comes up in the November, 1954, election. That's the proposal to provide four-year terms for state officials and legislators.

The other four come up in November, 1953. They include:

Permit the state to issue 500 million dollars worth of bonds to finance a speeded program of highway construction.

Create a State Board of Education with power to appoint a state superintendent of public instruction, an authority now exercised by the governor.

Make Negro as well as white citizens liable to service in the Ohio militia.

Repeal a number of "dead-wood" sections of the Ohio Constitution. This omnibus amendment would, in effect, replace the state constitutional convention the voters decided last November to pass up.
